SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

- Your products and solutions are embedded into the Fire & Security curriculum. Additionally, you will have the opportunity for your team to train our apprentices.
- Your branding is permanently displayed across all our training centres.
- According to the CBI, two-thirds of investors take ESG factors into account when investing in a company, meaning ESG has the potential to grow your business while benefiting the environment and community.
- Increase your brand exposure through extensive engagement opportunities, including regular social media promotion to a Skills for Security audience of 30,000+ followers.
- From our summer celebration event in London 'Engineering Futures', to our very own industry careers fair, sponsors always receive exclusive invites, providing high quality engagement opportunities.
